sleeves, just like our friends who spend winters in Arizona. The new laying chicks have become teenagers. We now have the luxury of time to plant biodynamically, according to the moon and the

Another computer glitch. Don't believe it. The days are longer, the sun is stronger and we are marching into daylight saving time this weekend. In spite of the bitter cold and wind chill that bites your face, inside the greenhouse it is 30 degrees C above. We work in our shirt plants we have started are amazing. It is the promise of good things to come. Fortunately we managed to make all our raised beds in the fall so once we get rid of all this snow we look forward to planting outside. Now is the time to do all the paperwork so we encourage you to renew your farm share before April. We need to get our drop off locations in place so we can advise new members. Our sign up brochure is online at the bottom of the CSA page. Those of you who wish to get eggs in your weekly or biweekly tub can let us know. We will have more eggs available this summer. With your discount they are $4.50/ doz. Thank you to those who have already renewed. Your early support is appreciated.
